The New Hook-and-Ladder Company.
The Crops-Matrimonial and Railroad Notes. dence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

SOUTH BOSTON, May 14, 1886. South Boston, May 14, 1886.

A meeting was held yesterday evening in the Record office for the purpose of organizing a hook-and-ladder company. The following officers were elected: J. A. Phillips, president; E. N. Hardy, foreman; R. W. Lawson, first assistant foreman; G. E. Faulkner, second assistant foreman; E. E. Paschall, secretary; J. W. Lee, treasurer. This company is a volunteer one, composed of young men. They have in posed of young men. They have in charge a No. I hook-and-ladder truck, furnished by the Town Council. They will soon have appropriate uniforms, and, if their present zeal does not wear away, will prove a benefit to the town. THE CROPS are looking well. Wheat and oats seem to be thriving very much, but are greatly endangered by the presence of the chinch-bug. This irrepressible pest has come to the front with alarming vigor. The cutworm is also worse than usual, and is doing much damage to vegetables, and, it may be, still more serious results will be noted on the tobacco crop when the young plants are set out. A very large crop of clover was planted and is looking tine. He presidency, and he was one of the most ardent supporters of Mr. Lincoln's election to that office. As a lawyer, Mr. Davis stood at the head of the bar serious results will be noted on the MATRIMONIAL.

The marriage of Dr. F. W. Whaley, of Clarksville, and Miss Helen Owen, of this county, last Wednesday was a brilliant society event. Rev. J. H. Davis, of the Presbyterian Church, performed the interesting ceremony. The attendants upon the couple were Mr. H. Moss, Miss Sallie Brookes; Mr. Eddie Morton Miss Fannie Regland: Craddock; Dr. T. E. Craddock, Miss Jennie Watkins; Mr. Bailey Owen,
Miss Sallie Edmunds. The presents

A meeting of the Board of Directors of the Lynchburg, Halifax and North Carolina railroad was held in Lynch-burg last Wednesday. The Board pe-titioned the Council of that city to order an election for a subscription of $300,000 on June 16th, and also the county of Campbell for a subscription 00,000 on July 15th. Action as to Halifax county was deferred to another meeting. This county will undoubtedly vote the subscription asked. Mr. Wood, din, Jr., of Halifax, is vice-president of the road, and our directors are Major H. A. Edmondson, Mr. Joseph Stebbins, and Mr. Thomas B. Clark. With four gentlemen possessing their wealth, intelligence, and general influence with the people, it is safe to predict the success of the road so far as this county is concerned. PHIL.

crowd was out, and local-option much discussed among the people.

One trial for attempted arson came off, on which there was a hung jury. This offence is getting to be very common in the county, and many cases have occurred this spring.

Another iron bridge across the Appomattox river between this county and Prince Edward county has just been erected at Venable's ford.

A shooting affair between two young men, growing out of a dispute about yoting, occurred at Enonville lately. No serious damage was done.

The late rains raised our streams to such a degree as to do much damage to crops in the lowlands.

As usual, there are great complaints of the scarcity of tobacco plants, except where canvas was used. That seems to have been a sure safeguard cept where canvas was used. That seems to have been a sure safeguard against the fly.

The endless train of teams hauling tan-bark is again on the roads.

A worthy successor to Mr. Tucker will be next in order. Each county of the district (Tenth) will present one or more candidates. Our good people are chock full of that patriotic feeling, and there is never any lack of men to fill good paying offices.

The residence of Mrs. M. E. Shelton, in this county, was the scene of a brilliant marriage, the contracting parties being the beautiful and accomplished daughter of the hostess and Mr. A. W. Camp, a popular young man from the county of Caroline. The ceremony was performed in the midst of a large concourse of friends by the Rev. Mr. Van course of friends by the Rev. Mr. Van Horton, and in a very impressive manner. The bridal party stood under an evergreen arch and a floral bell. After a sumptuous repast, prepared in a manner characteristic of old Virginia, the happy couple, attended by many friends, left for their future home in Caroline county, where they will be received in elegant style at the residence of the groom's father. ingly III. The condition of the health of Hon. David Davis, of Illinois, is causing his friends serious alarm. A dispatch from his home in Bloomington says that he is suffering from a dangerous carbuncle.

Judge Davis is one of the most distinguished and learned of our public men. He first saw the light of day in Cecil county, Maryland, March 9, 1815, and was educated at Kenyon College. and was educated at Kenyon College, Ohio. He studied law with Judge Bishop, in Lenox, Mass., and at the Law School at New Haven, Conn. In 1836 he settled at Bloomington, Ill., where he has since resided. He began active political life in 1845, being elected a member of the lower house of the Illinois Legislature. He was a member, also, of the Constitutional Convention which framed a new Constitution for the State in 1847, and in 1848 was elected judge of the Eighth judicial circuit of Illinois, and re-elected in 1855, and

He was, though a Republican, favorable to the Liberal movement, which was led by such men as the late ex-Governor Fenton, Horace Greeley, Murat Halstead, Carl Schurz, and others, yet he predicted that the movement would fail because Mr. Greeley was not the available candidate. Judge Davis took no part in the campaign, as a matter of course, holding, as he did, a judicial office, yet he was looked upon always as a future Presidential candidate.

After serving an honorable career of fifteen years on the Supreme-Court bench, which had no more popular member, Judge Davis resigned to ac-cept a seat in the United States Senate. He was for six years one of the most conspicuous members of that body. Physically, Judge Davis is the largest man who ever occupied a seat in the Senate. It was necessary, on his admission to that body, to have a chair made large enough for him. He was elected to the Senate as an Independent, and acted as one while a member. Mr. Mahone, of Virginia, was the other In-dependent in the Senate, and the balance of power rested with him and Judge Davis. After the death of Preside Garfield Judge Davis was honored by being chosen President of the Senate, a position which made him virtually Vice-President of the United States, Mr. Arthur having been sworn into the presidency. As a presiding officer he was very popular. Soon after retiring from the presidency in 1883 the Judge was married, in second nuptials, to a niece of Judge Green, member of Congress from an eastern North Carolina district.

CONTAGIOUS DISEASES ARE PREVALENT ALL OVER THE WORLD.

I am a native of England, and while I was in that country I contracted a terrible blood-poison, and for two years was under treatment as an out-door patient at Not-ingham Hospital, England, but was not gired. I suffered the most agouizing pains in my bones, and was covered with sores all over my body and limbs. I had vertigo and definess, with partial loss of sight, severe pains in my head and eyes, etc., which nearly ran me crazy. I lost all hope in that country and sailed for America, and was treated at Roosevelt, in this city, as well as by a prominent physician in New York having no connection with the hospitain.

York having no connection with the advertisement of Swift's Spetific, and I determined to give it a trial as a last resort. I had given up all hope of being cured, as I had gone through the hands of the best medical men in Nottingham and New York. I took six bottles of S. S. S., and I can say with great joy that they have cured me entirely. I am as sound and well as I ever was in my life.

New York CITY, June 12, 1885. BLOOD

IS the life, and he is wise who remembers it. But in March of last year (1884) I contracted blood-poison, and being in Savannah, G., at the time, I went into the hospital there for treatment. I suffered very much from rheumatism at the same time. I did not get well under the treatment there, nor was I cured by any of the usual means. I have now taken seven bottles of swift's Specific, and am sound and well. It drove the poison out through boils on the skin.

After taking prescriptions from the best physicians here and at Dallas, I concluded to visit Hot Springs, and on reaching Texarkana a dector recommended me to try Swift's Specific, assuring me that it would benefit me more than Hot Springs. Although the nad produced great holes in my back and chest, and had removed all the hair off my head, yet I began to improve in a week's time, and the soires began to beal, and were entirely gone inside of eight weeks.
